

The Maudsley Prescribing Guidelines Annual Conference 2026

Maudsley Prescribing Guidelines

Terms and Conditions

Privacy Policy

The information you provide when registering for an event will be used to:

- Provide you with services or information that you have requested from us such as attendance at one of our events or inclusion in a mailing list.
- Contact you with information about an event that you're attending.
- We will never share or sell your details to third parties for any other purposes.
- You can unsubscribe at any time by emailing prescribingguidelines@slam.nhs.uk.

Programme changes

The Chair reserves the right to make alterations to the programme and date at any time without prior notice.

Speakers

Views expressed by speakers are their own. The Chair and Event Organiser cannot accept liability for advice given, or views expressed, by any speaker at the conference or in any material provided to delegates.

Recording

Delegates who do not wish to be recorded (Q&A session) should advise the Event Organiser by email to prescribingguidelines@slam.nhs.uk prior to the event.

Cancellation policy

The Chair and Event Organiser reserve the right to amend the programme or cancel an event.

If an event has to be cancelled or rescheduled, we will contact you as soon as possible to notify you of the change. You will be offered an alternative or a full refund.

We cannot reimburse travel, accommodation or other costs related to the event.

The Chair and Event Organiser assume no liability if an event is cancelled or rescheduled resulting from fire, strike, terrorism, industrial action, pandemic, extreme weather or any cause beyond our control.

All tickets are non-refundable including payments requested by invoice. If you are no longer able to attend you can request in writing for your delegate place to be transferred by emailing your details and the details of the new attendee to prescribingguidelines@slam.nhs.uk. This must be submitted no later than 5 working days before the event.

Code of Conduct

We are dedicated to providing a safe, harassment-free environment for all event participants.

All participants – delegates, attendees, speakers, organisers and volunteers – are required to follow this Code of Conduct at all times. This includes communications and social media before, during and after the conference itself.

All individuals attending this event must agree to conduct themselves in a respectful and professional manner. This includes respect for the intellectual property of others, proper display and use of name badges and respect for everyone regardless of their gender, race, disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, age or being or becoming transgender.

These behaviours, in any form, will not be tolerated:

- Harassment: unwelcome or hostile behaviour, including verbal or written comments that intimidate or create discomfort
- Intimidation, deliberate stalking or following
- Abuse of any kind
- Discrimination
- Inappropriate physical contact and unwelcome sexual attention.
- Use of sexualized language, images, or clothing. This includes presentations, slides, and speaker content.
- Offensive banter, insults, taunts or exclusionary jokes
- Recording: video or audio recording of lectures, speakers, delegates, staff, exhibitions, venue, slides, posters, breaks or any other conference spaces, materials or individuals is not permitted without prior consent of the organisers. Photographs of participants are permitted with the permission of those being prominently photographed. Photographs of slides, posters and other academic content are permitted only with the permission of the author.

- Disruption of any lectures, sessions or masterclasses.
- Emails or any form of written communication that is aggressive, rude, upsetting or which could amount to sexual or racial harassment, or harassment on the grounds of someone's disability, sexual orientation, religion or belief, age or being or becoming transgender. Email harassment can arise simply from unreasonable repeated or unwanted requests, or messages containing sexual or racial innuendos.
- Participants may not publicise, distribute, canvass, display, carry out activities or demonstrations, or distribute materials or inducements. Any materials found, unless by previous agreement, will be removed and disposed of.

This is a non-exhaustive list.

If an individual believes that these rules have been violated, he or she should contact staff at the registration desk.

Participants found in violation of these rules may be asked to leave the conference without a refund at the sole discretion of the conference organisers.

The Chair and Event Organiser have absolute discretion in the admission of participants and reserve the right to decline any registration.
